3. Accuracy of minutes
The minutes were accepted as accurate
4. Matters arising from previous minutes:
The garden (or soft landscaping) was weeded and planted by Jane Buckley and Sue Walker. They volunteered to do this. Looks lovely

5. Financial statement
Had been circulated at the AGM

6. Ideas for activities
The quad centre – Fran will investigate whether we could have a tour of the Quad.
Book swap – the coffee morning in September will be a book swap
A Saturday book swap will be organised for children.
There will be another quiz in February (Jenny is organising one in October/November)

7. Main agenda
Debrief on Coffee Morning – as usual good. It did attract another member to come to this meeting

Photography competition

Judges

Maureen to be sent more information by Mick to give to Julian who would be agreeable to be a judge.

Prizes

Derby City Beautiful, By Alistair and Jan Campbell

(Maggie and Mick are trying to acquire copies of this)

Maggie will try to get some flash cards

Advertising

Mick to send poster advertising competition to Carmel asap

Carmel to run off several.

Kath Ratcliff will take 6 and put them up in various places she attends.

Carmel to circulate copies to all members to advertise.

Carmel to make (400) A6 size copies to go into schools for the students to take home at the end of term.

8. Any other business

Fran asked for a volunteer to sit on the recruitment panel. Jane volunteered.
This will take place on July 16th and August 6th.

Members of a library group which is being formed in Oakwood will be coming to chat to us informally

August 7th – 5.30pm to 8pm.

Carmel, Jane, Maggie and Jan will be there.

Mick suggested we invite David Potton to attend our July meeting.

Carmel to invite him.

Mick to order business size cards advertising. These will be available to anyone who uses the library.

It was felt that as a group we should advertise ourselves and our activities more widely. Carmel to send details about MLUGs to local groups. We should invite a different group each month to our meetings.

Jo invited members of MLUG to the walk on the Sunday of the birthday weekend. It will last 45minutes. Meet at the library at 2pm.
