3. Accuracy of minutes

The number of photos (for the competition) received was inaccurate.
There were 26.

4. Matters arising from previous minutes:

Layout of the library. This has been changed and most comments have been positive.

The IT suite – this is still under discussion with senior management.
MLUG is appreciative that requests are taken seriously.

5. Financial statement

6. Review of constitution

7. Ideas for activities

The quiz

Date	February 18 th
Cost	£6.25p
Time	7.15pm
Questions	Gerald Towers
Question master	(hopefully) Mick Hird
Numbers	no more than 50

Sierra Leone – Millie to follow up talk on this

Whist Drive

Would we be interested in running a whist drive? Yes

Problem, several of us do not remember how to play.

There will be a teaching session after the coffee morning on January 8th.

Anyone interested, please turn up. Bring a sandwich with you.

8. Main agenda

Debrief on Coffee Morning
Last month we made £9.20p

Photography competition

There is some disappointment about the number of entries. Could the event have been advertised differently?

We have enough entries to make a competition. When Mick comes back, he will organise judges – maybe Fran and one other.

Prize giving to be late November/early December. Wine and cheese in the library.

Talk on China (Zoe Poynton) - As September

Room to be set up at 6.30pm

Millie, Jane, Carmel, Evelyn, Jan and Gerald volunteered to help.

Could we have a fuddle as well as a meeting on December 18th?

Yes but this must finish no later than 7.45pm.

Christmas card event - November 29th 12-4pm

Mince pies to be ordered from WI

Dates 2009 - All have been booked for Thursdays
