

1. Introduction and welcome

2. Apologies

Present

Jane Buckley, Carmel Canavan, Mick Hird, Gerald Towers, Millie Guylar, Jan Southworth, Sue Walker, Jo Greenway, Maggie Hird, Chris Holmes, Maureen Carruthers, Joan Doughty, Richard Billinge, Jenny Shaw

3. Accuracy of minutes

Richard's surname name was incorrectly spelt.

4. Matters arising from previous minutes:

Quad tour – this was an excellent event. Kathy Frain was wonderful. There is so much more to Quad.

Father's Day card – Jo has a card in mind that could be made. She will buy a pack of stickers. 50 packs of cards will be placed in the library.

5. Financial statement – as usual

6. Review of constitution – changes to constitution were accepted.

7. Ideas for activities

Jo has designed a questionnaire to ask library users to identify activities they would like.

There was a request that there should be labelling of library shelves. It was pointed out that every book is labelled with the first letter of the author's surname.

The daughter of a friend of Millie's is the deputy consul in Shanghai. She is returning to England in November and would be prepared to give us a talk. Suggestion that this could happen in an afternoon. Meeting agreed.

Poetry evening to coincide with Poetry Day in October. Jenny has access to displays about poetry. Poetry karaoke. (Poetoki)

Play readings

8. Main agenda

Debrief on Coffee Morning and whist - only 4 for whist. Should this be put on hold until winter. We'll see how many come on Thursday.

Gardeners Question Time – this was cancelled due to lack of interest

Antiques Roadshow – September 30th at 7pm – talk by Charles Hanson. Please note I have asked him to give us a talk.

Title –

Antiques – a talk by Charles Hansen (as seen on Flog it)

Topics suggested – What are antiques? What are collectibles at the moment?
True or false? Valuation?

We'll begin to advertise now.

Funds – Display cabinet – everyone agreed to funding for display cases. In July two people from the library service will come to our meeting. (There are display cases in the new library at Allenton.) We are welcome to visit.

Jenny will identify where the display cabinets could be.

The museum will decide what should be in the cases.

Name of group – there was much discussion around this item. Finally a vote was taken.

Should the name be kept?

Should the name be kept for the present and changed at a later date?

It was decided that we would keep the name Mickleover Library User Group. That is it.

9. Nominations for post of secretary invited.

Jan would record the minutes. Someone is needed to do events.

10. Any other business

Remember that on any literature (e.g. posters, bookmarks, Friends of Mickleover Library can be written).

MLUG agreed that Maria Paine (Age Concern) could come and chat informally at our next coffee morning. (Thursday June 4th).

Joan wanted the meeting to know that the notices on the community centre car parks state that the car park is for the use of community centre users only. This is wrong. The notices will be changed.

Maggie suggested that bookmarks publicising MLUG could be put in books. Jo will make the bookmarks.
