Introduction and welcome c/o Millie.

1. Apologies

Evelyn Johnson, Maggie Hird, Richard Billinge, Fran Renwick, Julie Topham.

Present

Jane Buckley, Carmel Canavan, Mick Hird, Gerald Towers, Millie Guyler, Jenny Shaw, Jo Greenway, Maureen Carruthers, Jan Southworth, Joan Doughty, Chris Holmes, Ian Samways.

2. Accuracy of minutes

Apologies – Maureen not noted from the last meeting.

3. Questionnaire

A handful of answers were obtained from the antiques talk and when we have accumulated more, the responses will be shared with library staff.

4. Magnifier

There are a wide variety available from Bennets starting at £1.00. The original request for a magnifier was made at the Scrabble club, but it was felt that a poster or multi-screen advert for would be good to raise awareness once one (or several) have been purchased. Carmel and Millie discussed shopping for a magnifier.

5. Scrabble Express

Jo to bring to the next meeting, however Mick had a look on e-Bay and they are available at approximately £12.00.

6. Finance Statement

Mick is collecting subscriptions at present.

7. Constitution

Ongoing.

8. Activity ideas

Rwanda talk. Ian's cousin visited Rwanda last year for a month and has already given a talk about her experiences. Ian suggests half an hour talk with half an hour questions. This is a suggestion for the calendar next year. Ian will ask about her fee/donation.

Folk Music – Ian has been involved with folk music in the past and he has offered to make enquiries for an evening comprising of music, wine, perhaps 40 mins of music – interval – a second half of 40 mins.

Rita Kappia approached Jenny about organising a workshop – how to make Christmas presents. The fee would be £130 - the idea was put to one side.

Museum case – Millie has been to see the cases in Allenton. Fran has said that the Council has found enough money to provide a case for Mickleover and 5 other libraries. We could still buy one other. It was again suggested that we wait until Mackworth library has been completed before making a decision, but this was seen as good news. Thanks!

Coffee Morning – not particularly well attended. Spare questionnaires given to the group for using at the next coffee morning.

Talk by Charles Hanson raised £77. It proved very interesting after his late arrival!

Shanghai Talk - all equipment is booked. The booking form is now ready and with Jenny. Tickets will be £3 with a glass of wine. Joan has offered to take admission and Chris has volunteered to organise the drinks and nibbles. Jo will take posters to the library next week and will check the booking form the week before to see whether further advertising is necessary.

Back in the USSR! – this has provisionally been set for 24 February 2010. Kathy will be asked if she is doing food.

Quiz – March 10. Gerald asked “what do we want questions on”? We selected: Food and drink, Geography, History, Literature, Current Affairs, Mixed Music, Sport, Picture round, Mickleover local history.

Garden - 2 volunteers have tidied the garden. There is also a volunteer for the next 4 weeks who is tackling the garden across from the library.

Timing of the meetings - we get a good turnout and 5 – 7 pm works well. It was agreed that timings of meetings are to stay the same.

AOB - Photographic competition – Joan has requested her Mickleover photos and Carmel has them – she will pass them back to her.

Jenny – via Mark Elliott – has informed us of a Science and Technology week promotion in all city libraries and has asked whether the user group would be interested in submitting a bid. Mick suggested Jenny contact Friends of Mickleover Meadows.
